TALK OF THE TOWN

The Altruists will meet with Mrs. George Bosworth, 40 Perry street, Friday afternoon, Nov. 10.

Among the Williamstown visitors in Barre this morning were Mrs. Glenn McAllister and Mrs. Fred Alger.

Mrs. Dr. Fisk of Pasadena, Cal., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, 17 West street.

A. E. Campbell of North Main street, who suffered a painful ankle sprain two weeks ago, is able to be out of doors.

Supt. of Genitoria, Alex. Hanson will be in his room, city hall, Saturday, Nov. 11, from 7 to 8 p. m., to collect fees.—ad.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gardner of Huntington Center returned to their home yesterday after spending several days in Barre visiting friends.

Mrs. Fred Glidden of East Roxbury returned to her home last night after spending several days visiting relatives in Barre and vicinity.

A regular meeting of St. John's court, C. O. F., will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. Initiation. Forty-five game after the meeting.

Wallace LaFayette, who has been visiting friends in Barre and vicinity during the past week, returned to his home in Lebanon, N. H., this morning.

William Guerin, who is employed as a bellhop at the Sherwood hotel in Burlington, is passing a week's vacation with friends in Barre, his former home.

Mrs. Dana Smith and son, Ely, of Montpelier and her second son, Percy Smith, who lives in New Mexico, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Archibald in South Barre.

John Bertoli of Quincy, Mass., is passing a few days in the home of his sister, Mrs. Eva Carusi of Second street, having been summoned here by the death of his brother, Harry V. Bertoli.

From Secretary of State Guy W. Bailey, Chief Sinclair of the police department received notice this morning that the automobile operator's license of Victor Stacy has been revoked.

Barre police are in receipt of invitations to the fourth annual ball of the Burlington police department, which is to be held Nov. 15. A. N. Lucian is chairman of the committee in charge.

Charles A. Neveau, formerly manager of the Morrison farm on west hill, arrived in the city to-day for a visit of a few days before returning to Georgia Center, where he recently purchased a farm.

There are several candidates to be voted upon at to-night's N. E. O. P. meeting and as there is to be an initiation, all members of the degree staff are requested to be on hand. The meeting opens promptly at 7:30.

A song meeting under the auspices of the woman's auxiliary to the British war relief, will be held Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Margaret Stephens, 38 Maple avenue. All are welcome to come and sew for the soldiers. Bring shears and thimbles.

Representative James K. Pirie of Williamstown, who won his contest for election to the general assembly yesterday, invites all his friends to participate in a reception at the Pirie home just over the Graniteville line in Williamstown Friday evening.

Barre bowling fans will be interested to know that Harold Nute, New Hampshire candle-pin champion and contender for the New England title has been matched to roll against Paul Boehler of Lowell, Mass., sometime champion of the Atlantic coast states. It is expected that the match will be rolled in Boston Friday evening. Nute has consistently upheld his record of last winter in some of the preliminary matches on Manchester and Nashua lanes.

Women of Ruth chapter, No. 33, O. E. S., have elected a committee to have charge of the 6 o'clock supper which they are to serve to-morrow evening to Masons attending the annual convention of the sixth Masonic district. The ceremonies will begin at the Masonic hall in the Blanchard building in the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and after adjournment for supper degrees will be conferred at 7:30 o'clock. Reports indicate that a representative delegation of grand lodge members will be present.

Alderman E. C. Glysson, chairman of the street committee, and others connected with street department work in Barre, motored to Bradford recently to inspect the permanent roadway which laborers are constructing for the town. Contractor J. E. Cashman of Burlington has the contract for the work and J. C. DeBruine of this city is in charge of the project. The Barre road builders were much impressed with that section of the permanent highway that has been completed. The work is to cost $35,000 and if the contractor is unable to complete it this fall, the finish will be accomplished as soon as weather conditions permit in the spring.

The Goddard football squad of 15 men, accompanied by Coach Kinney, boarded the noon train for Northfield, where they clash with the strong Norwich university seconds this afternoon for the second time this year. The first contest was staged on the Goddard campus three weeks ago when the boys from the hill defeated the N. U. team by a score of 13 to 7; but chances for repeating the victory are conceded to be rather slim by a few of the hilltop players, as the team as weakened by the loss of Capt. McIntosh, who has been bolstering the line during the past few weeks, and several other men on the squad who were injured in the game against St. Peter's last Saturday at Rutland, among them being Beatty, who will be out on account of a fractured wrist, and Wells, who is doubtful about getting back into the lineup, as Lavoie, who has been playing in the backfield, will be shifted into the line, and Guernsey, the speedy little track man, will be placed in the backfield to hit the line. Lavoie probably will be called upon to do most of the punting. Slaxton will play one of the end positions, while Soules has a chance to work on the other end.

L. B. Brooks, Elected Representative on Second Ballot, Called on for Speech.

With 743 votes, exactly enough for a choice, Lynn B. Brooks, the Democratic nominee, was elected city representative on the second ballot last evening over William A. Lord. Mr. Lord polled 688 votes on the second ballot as against 709 the first time. Mr. Brooks was called upon for a speech following the announcement of his election but responded by simply expressing appreciation for the support given him and assured the voters that he would do his utmost to represent Montpelier and the state in a satisfactory manner. Because of the second ballot for representative and the lack of clerks and justices to count ballots, Montpelier's vote on state and congressional officers and the county ticket was not known until nearly midnight.

Following is the vote: Graham, 1048, Mayo 428; Hulburd 1032, Brislin 412; Scott 1010, Luce 408; Bailey 1028, Wright 408; Gates 1062, Durick 403; Barber 1062, Webster 410. County ticket: Bancroft 845, Demeritt 586, Steele 901; Callaghan 874, Tilden 452, Pray 451; Martin 833, Gleason 833, Shurtliff 601; Tracy 806, Donahue 464.

Montpelier and Burlington high schools are playing football this afternoon on Montpelier seminary campus and the locals are not confident of an easy victory since the game with Spaulding and the Burlington-St. Albans result on the same day. At Burlington two weeks ago Montpelier won 13 to 0.

Walter Hubbard, formerly of this city and St. Johnsbury, is spending a few days in the city, having arrived yesterday afternoon. Former Attorney-General Sargent of Ludlow was a visitor in the city yesterday and to-day attending supreme court.

Burton E. Bailey, Montpelier postmaster, has brought suit in Washington county court against James Law Ingram and the four Barre banks, the Barre Savings bank, Quarry Savings bank, Granite Savings bank, and People's Savings bank, all being trustees. Fred L. Laird represents the plaintiff in a chancery suit against Sidney E. Spraford. E. L. Scott appears for the former.

In probate court to-day Matthew J. Doyle was appointed executor of the will of Ellen Deady, late of Montpelier. Le Roy A. Eastman of Northfield was appointed administrator de bonis of the estate of John A. Locklin in place of Arthur W. Locklin, resigned. Mr. Eastman was appointed upon an application of the widow and son, the latter being held on charge of larceny from the estate. The will of Vienna L. Boles, late of Berlin, has been proven and Arthur D. Farwell named executor.

Miss Fisk of Boston is visiting at the home of her brother, Will Fisk.

A visitor to an English training camp was greatly shocked at the appearance of the men. Turn where he would, black eyes and bruised faces were astonishingly frequent among the soldiers.

"What's been the trouble?" he asked his friend. "Had a row with the next regiment, that's all," replied the corporal. "What about?" "Oh, the buggars set a sentry to watch their towel while it was out drying, and we felt insulted."—Youth's Companion.
